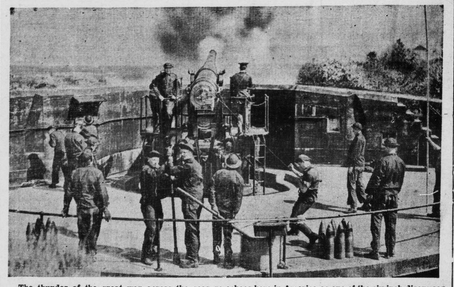
Thunder on Our Coast—but It's Only Practice!



The thunder of the great war across the seas re-echoes here in America as one of the six-inch disappearing guns at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, unlimbers its blast. As the gunner yanks the lanyard a projectile is hurled at a moving target several miles away. Note how the men in the pit have braced themselves against the effects of the concussion.

Widow Gives Her Savings To Red Cross Drive

A widow in Appomatox county with two daughters, had for some time saved every penny she could by economizing and doing without. This amount, saved out of her very small salary, amounted to $5.66. However instead of taking the vacation, she turned the entire amount over to the Rev. L. C. Shearer, county chairman of the Red Cross War Fund Campaign, through her church committee. This money will join other gifts for relief of the war sufferers. This widow stated that although she was giving all of her savings, she felt that she at least was able to sleep and food to eat while the war sufferers had nothing. Many Americans have given far larger sums, but how many have made a sacrifice like this?

The Red Cross chapter of Appomattox county offers a special prayer that God will bless the sacrificial contribution and the county is proud of this widow.

Red Cross officials say that need for relief continues to increase and the committees are urged to continue their efforts.

LEGION BOYS' TEAM

The Appomattox American Legion boys baseball team will play the Salem team here at the Lee Theatre diamond Saturday at 3 P. M. This is a return game. Appomattox having won the game at Salem. The public is urged to attend and give its support these boys teams, who are playing out a schedule of games to determine Legion championships. Appomattox lost a pair of games to Roanoke, 8 to 0 and 7 to 6, the latter game being very closely contested.

Democrats Ask Defense Plans Be Speeded

Senator Moses One Of Delegates To National Convention

Richmond, Va., June 19 (VPA) Meeting in Roanoke, Virginia's Democratic Convention adopted June 14 a foreign policy platform rewritten to demand "speedy aid to the Allies to the fullest extent of our resources." This uncompromising, unqualified statement was adopted amid cheers after a proposal that "all aid short of war be extended" was rejected.

Virginia's delegation, mustering 22 votes in the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago, will go uninstructed, and directed to vote as a unit on issues that win a majority of its votes. The unit rule may also be discarded if a majority of the delegation so votes.

Highlights of the convention were:

The keynote speech by State Senator John W. Carter, of Danville, avoiding the third-term issue and advocating "arming t o the teeth" against foreign agression. "Let me warn y o u that if England and France fall victims to the hordes . . planning the destruction of London, we are next on the list," Senator Carter thundered.

A ringing address by Senator Harry Flood Byrd, urging a navy strong enough to defend both the Atlantic and the Pacific, mechanized equipment second to none, a powerful air force and a trained army. Virginia's Junior U. S. Senator said that the State and nation must have "total preparedness" and must realize that "we are not now prepared for war." Senator Byrd said that he had never voted against a defense appropriation. He warned that America might have to send "not one million, not two million, but many millions of men" to regain consuered portions of Europe.

E. R. Combs, clerk of the state senate, was elected national committeeman to succeed Senator Byrd. Glass and Byrd, Governor James H. Price, J. Murray Hooker Thomas G. Burch; E. E. Combs; Mrs. Page Morton, Mrs. Josephine Almond.

Thomas W. Colin presided at the Fourth District caucus on Friday morning, which elected State Senator Chas. J. Moses of Appomattox as one of the district's four delegates to the national convention.

About twenty-five Appomattox county Democrats were at the convention.

NOTICE TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

WHEREAS, the Hon. P. H. Drewry is the only candidate to file notice of his candidacy with the Fourth District Committee, he is hereby declared the Democratic nominee for the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia.

Has Data On NavyEnlistment

C. W. Smith, county clerk, announced today that he has received a supply of information and literature about the United States Navy from its Recruiting Office and would gladly go over this information with any Appomattox young men between the ages of 18 and 30, inclusive. The Navy offers young men an opportunity to attend trade schools, and prepare themselves for vocations. The personnel of the Navy is being greatly increased under the national defense program, and very attractive openings await the young men who can meet the Navy enlistment standards.

Winners In Correct Dress Contest Given

The Appomatox county 4-H club members met on the local school lawn Saturday afternoon, June 15, for the annual Correct Dress Contest and Rally Program. Before the contest, games, soft ball and horseshoe pitching were unjoyed. Miss Agnes Mason, home demonstration agent of Prince Edward county, was the contest judge.

There were two contests, one for members from 10 to 14 years of age and one for members over 14. The junior winners of the contest will be sent to the Hafpden-Sydney short course by the county council. The winners in this contest were: LaVerne Moss, who wore a lovely informal party dress; and Morris Ferguson, who were an outfit appropriate for church.

The winners in the senior contest were: Barbara Caldwell, whose outfit was for church or street; and Braxton Dickerson and Thomas Jennings who tied for first place in the boys' contest. Their outfits were for church. These winners will go to the state short course at Blacksburg in July.

Manager Caldwell states that he will try to get Harry Ewers to return to Appomattox next week from the Lynchburg Senators.

Appomattox's Lee Theatre baseball team lost last Saturday's game to Brookneal there by a score of 2 to 1 in five innings. Appomattox led the secore in the sixth inning, but a rain storm broke up the game before Brookneal could take its turn at bat and the score reverted to the fifth inning.

Two new faces appeared in the line-up: the veteran Brookneal pitcher George Powell, pitched a three hit game and would have had a shutout, but for two errors which handed Brookneal its two runs. Charlie Spencer caught the game. He has been at Farmville for several years and is a Fork Union product.

Holiday Lake Drawing Large Crowds So Far

With the advent of real summer weather, Holiday Lake, the big 159 acre government lake on the border of Appomattox and Buckingham counties, is coming into its own as a recreational resort. Last Sunday upwards of 250 bathers were enjoying the sand beach and cooling waters. "Dickie Boy" Burke, of Appomattox' is life-guard at the lake.

The bath house has been completed, but is not open to the public, due to lack of electric current to operate the water system and furnish lights. However, it is hoped that the bath house may be in use before the end of the season. Many bathers don their swim suits at home under the present set-up. The resort is growing in favor as a picnic site. Scores of people from Lynchburg and considerable distances throughout central Virginia are flocking to Holiday Lake, as well as Appomattox and Buckingham residents.
